SUCH ARE ERIN'S FRIENDS

SUPPOSED NEW GOVERNOR DISCUSSES GLADSTONE'S PROPOSALS.

The Evening Post Thinks Penalty Ought to Stop What Americans Would Do in Regarding Home Rule in Ireland. Bill, Mayor Grace, and Gov. Abbett Take Prominent Parts in the Meeting—A Telegram Sent to the Premier and Outside Resolutions Adopted—Extracts from Page Up, but Only to Be Ridiculed Again[ed].

NEW YORK, May 9.—[Special.]—But the news of Dail ove the transference of the Queen's Jubilee Diamonds was overlooked in the excitement over the Anniversary of Grant's birthday last night. It was a genuine outpouring of sympathizers with the fight for home rule for Ireland. Eugene Kelly, the treasurer of the Irish Parliamentary Fund committee, was one of the first to appear on the platform. The body of the meeting was composed largely of friends and supporters of Mr. Gladstone's proposed measure to bestow home rule, stanched to the Sun Henry J. Bidwell, the Rev. Father Donnelly, the Rev. Father Sheridan, and several other Catholic clergymen. The Archbishop accepted an invitation to occupy a seat on the platform, but owing to other engagements was unable to be present.

Before the meeting was called to order many notables were present in boxes.

On the platform were many conspicuous men, but the general absence of Democratic leaders was noted, and both Democrats and Republicans were conspicuous by their absence. The list of vice-Presidents included Governor-elect Frank S. Black, Mayor Grace, Senator William M. Evarts, Gen. Horace Porter, Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, Judge Noah Davis, and other well known men. Among the letters read were those from Governor Morton, Senator Hill, Senator Gorman, Ex-Secretary of the Navy Whitney, Ex-Postmaster-General Wilson, Ex-Secretary of the Interior Lamar, Ex-Secretary of War Endicott, Congressmen Sperry, Bell, and others.

Many times was expressed[ed] unbelief when to the statement of the Chairman, Eugene Kelly, that the object of the meeting was to express faith in the present Gladstone home rule measure. Some words to this effect came from the great assemblage with a unanimity that showed that the sentiment was unanimous.

The only prospect of unanimity with the Chairman in the opening words of the long and useful career of Eugene Kelly as the head and representative of the Irish Parliamentary party. Mr. Kelly's greeting of his friends, and his announcement of the object of the meeting, met with a storm of hostility at the outset, which was not appreciated by the chairman, for in tones of surprise Mr. Kelly asked for an explanation of the disturbance. He was told that a number of those present objected to the meeting being held in favor of home rule. He replied in a clear and convincing way that the meeting was called for the purpose of expressing sympathy with the struggle of the Irish people for home rule, and that it was not a political meeting. The applause which followed showed that the sentiment of the audience was with the chairman.

Mr. Kelly then introduced Mayor Grace, who was received with many demonstrations of the friendly sentiment. Mayor Grace said, in substance, that he was glad to be present at the meeting, and that he was in favor of home rule for Ireland. He was proud to be a citizen of a country where all questions could be settled by the ballot, and he was sure that the Irish people would soon settle their own affairs. He was glad to see the Democrats and Republicans present, and he hoped that the time would soon come when all parties would unite in favor of home rule for Ireland.

Governor-elect Frank S. Black was then introduced, and was received with great applause. He said: "I am glad to be present at this meeting, and I am in favor of home rule for Ireland. I am not in favor of the Irish Parliamentary Fund, but I am in favor of home rule. I am glad to see so many Democrats and Republicans present. We are all Americans," said he, "and we are proud to cooperate[ed] with the Irish people in their struggle for home rule. We are sympathizers in the cause of Ireland, and we hope to see the day when Ireland will be free. I am glad to see so many Democrats present. We are all Americans, San Franc, May 9.—[Special.]—There are reported in Stockton's free temperance cities of the United States 122,000 men to whom almost twice have been granted orders a week without the effect of working. The report so far is that of 8,000 Chicago packing-house employes, 10,000 in Kansas City, 10,000 in San Francisco, 1,000 in Omaha, and 1,000 in Chicago. The following labor-clothing headquarters are: Chicago, 4,000 (2,000 at Stockyards); Kansas City, 2,000 (1,000 at Armour & Co.'s); Omaha, 1,000 (1,000 at Armour & Co.'s); Fort Worth, 1,000 (1,000 at Armour & Co.'s); Denver, 1,000 (1,000 at Armour & Co.'s); Sioux City, 1,000 (1,000 at Armour & Co.'s); Cincinnati, 1,000 (1,000 at Armour & Co.'s); Milwaukee, 1,000 (1,000 at Armour & Co.'s); Minneapolis, 1,000 (1,000 at Armour & Co.'s); Detroit, 1,000 (1,000 at Armour & Co.'s); St. Louis, 1,000 (1,000 at Armour & Co.'s); Kansas City, 1,000 (1,000 at Armour & Co.'s); and numerous other cities with fewer than 1,000 each. The total number striking among the packing-house employes is 30,000. Of these, 10,000 (Chicago, 4,000; Kansas City, 2,000; Omaha, 1,000; Fort Worth, 1,000; Sioux City, 1,000; Cincinnati, 1,000; Milwaukee, 1,000; Minneapolis, 1,000; Detroit, 1,000; St. Louis, 1,000; Kansas City, 1,000; Omaha, 1,000;

Speeches by Senator Sherman, Ex-Governor Foraker, and Other Distinguished Visitors—A General Love-Feast—Some Spanish Speeches That They Have No Fault—Special Dispatches—Letters of Regret—Other Prominent Republicans—Stale Praise.

New York, May 3.—Thousands and thousands of Ohio residents in this city celebrated the founding of the Ohio Society of New York by a banquet at Delmonico's to-night. The guests of the occasion were Gen. Thomas Ewing, Gen. Benj. L. Buckett, Gen. W. L. Strong, ex-Mayor Grace, Gen. Thomas G. Stough, ex-Gov. Foraker, Gen. Lew Wallace, Gen. Stanley Matthews, Gov. Hoadley, and others of prominence. Under a similar organization—the New England Society, which the Pilgrims of the soil of Old England—the Southern Society, and the Society of the American Republics, the people were present. The hall was gaily but tastefully decorated. Above the head were Congressmen Jacob Sowers, A. C. Thompson, James E. Campbell, H. S. Neal, C. W. Moulton, Joseph H. Richmond, Sidney Johns Lewis, and W. L. Cooper, ex-Governor of Ohio A. G. Bishop, James R. Garfield, and Charles Foster; Judges W. S. Upson, S. E. Lehmann, and John H. Boyd; Lieutenant-Governor of New Jersey; Alexander Gibson, Chicago; Samuel L. Woodford, Brooklyn; Gen. S. Stone, A. J. C. Pyle, Wallace Bruce, and Gen. H. S. Starr. A letter was received from the Hon. S. S. Cox, Gen. Thomas Ewing, who is now confined to his home in Lancaster, O., by a severe attack of rheumatism, and other distinguished Ohioans.

Gen. Ewing, who presided, said that he was glad to see so many Ohio men present, and he was glad to see so many Democrats present. He was glad to see so many Democrats present because he knew that they were going to vote the Republican ticket this year. [Laughter.]

The police relief fund now amounts to over $30,000.

OFFICER M. J. DUGAN, one of the victims of Tuesday night's bank blowing, was buried yesterday.

ALL the police stations of the city are draped in mourning in honor of the victims of Tuesday night's massacre.

STEVEN BUTKOVICH, editor of L'Union-Slavon, and M. Pavelich fought a duel with pistols near Paris yesterday. Four shots were fired by each combatant, none of which did any harm.

THE business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number for the United States 197 and for Canada 32, or a total of 229, as compared with a total of 207 last week and 256 the week previous to the last.

THE police yesterday arrested two more Imperial Socialists, who had in their possession firearms, knives, and dynamite. Like all the rest of the unwieldy gang as he apprehended, they exhibited great trepidation on being brought face to face with the laws they have dared to defy.

GEN. LORD WOLSELEY has denied the statement attributed to him that if home rule were granted to Ireland he might resign his command for the purpose of leading an army of Ulster men to visit the new Irish Government, and that 1,000 other British officers would follow his example.

THE Texas State Treasury has resumed cash payments all around. About four months ago it temporarily suspended payment of school warrants owing to slow returns from County Treasurers. All registered school warrants have been called in, and the Treasury is now said to be in a prosperous condition.

THE fire losses of April in the United States and Canada are estimated at $11,000,000. This is $500,000 more than the April fire losses have averaged during the last eleven years. There were thirteen fires in April whose aggregate destructiveness reached $1,000,000. The April loss of $11,000 not upward combined (16). The fire waste of 1896 will comfortably exceed $100,000,000.

THE Greek Government has sent a gunboat to Constantinople to bring away the Hellenic Minister. Great troops are being hurried to the frontier. The Powers have ordered their fleets to blockade the Greek ports. The Government has announced its intention of defending Greek territory against any and all advances by foreign soldiers. The position of Athens are enthusiastic over the prospect of war with Turkey, and the soldiers paraded the streets singing patriotic songs. They were everywhere cheered, and are at present the most popular persons in the city.

AT the regular monthly meeting of the Citizens' League held yesterday Mr. Andrew Paxton, the general agent, presented his report for the month of April. It shows the prosecution of 126 misdemeanors and the assessment of fines amounting to over $2,000. Mr. Paxton stated that a great number of complaints had come to the officers of the league against pawnbrokers for a connection with sign boards, and whose proprietors permit small boys to play pool and smoke in those places Sundays as well as other days. During the month several of the places have been raided and broken up by the officers of the league, and in nearly every case both the boys and the owners have been arrested and fined.

A INQUEST inquest was held yesterday afternoon at the County Hospital upon the bodies of Policemen John J. Barrett and George F. Mueller, victims of Tuesday evening's riot. The verdict in the former case was identical with the one rendered at the Dugan inquest. In Mueller's case it was: "That the said George F. Mueller came to his death the 6th day of May from shock and hemorrhage caused by a ball shot out of a pistol in the hand of a person unknown to this jury. And the jury recommend that the said unknown person be apprehended and committed to the County Jail without bail; and that Augustus Spies, Samuel Fielden, Michael Schwab, and A. S. Parsons be committed as accessories without bail to the County Jail." While the jury was in session the Coroner was repeatedly interrupted by a dispute between two undertakers who had come to remove the body of Policeman Mueller from the morgue. There was a ghastly row, fist taking and cursing, and threats of personal violence were also made.

THE money market was quiet and strong, sterling exchange was steady. Investment securities were dull. The New York stock market was fairly active and higher.—The Chicago produce markets were less active and generally firmer, except on pork and

Gen. Bragg of Wisconsin.

Gen. Bragg, of Wisconsin, who proposes to bring with the rivers in Illinois has amount forwards commerce from the west of the country to the other, is serving his second term as Governor. He has practically served two terms, as he was appointed and in 1891 he was elected. He will be out Jan. 1, 1897, and he says he will not be a candidate for the office.

Gen. John Black.

Gen. John Black, the Democratic nominee in New York for attorney general, has been in the public service for many years. He was made famous by the authorities there. Most made his office as Democratic silver views were known, but he became a disciple of the Democratic party and Labor. Most was successful in his race, but elected not on his own work. He is a lawyer by training, although having been engaged in the manufacturing business, and at one time was president of the Erie Railway company. He was born in Albany, Feb. 22, 1844, and is therefore fifty-two years old. He is married and has a family.

THE SITUATION IN GREECE VERY THREATENING INDEED.

The Sultan Leaves the Turkish Capital, and His Troops Are Once More Moving to the Frontier—Action of the Great Powers—Charitable Appeal Against Gladstone—Why Smith Supports the Latter—Australian Fights Another Duel—Gossip.

LONDON, May 9.—[By Atlantic Cable to The Tribune.]—The most epoch here is apparently centred at the present moment in Greece. Consequently the Government is under forces. Crowds have been cheering this all day.

The Greek premier made large drafts the army to Thessaly, and at last prepared to go with popular cheers announced for there.

The Turks are rapidly concentrating on the frontier. The British, Italian, German, and Austrian Ministers have gone, but their legations are still represented, as also the Russian and are actively broken. The Turkish Minister has gone with all his legation.

The Russian Minister will soon arrive here from Livadia, where he met the Czar. He was to be supported as evidence that the Czar may join the French fleets.

The French Senate will resume, which is regarded as another significant fact. The visit to the English, Italian, and Austrian fleet off Volos will embark at Lavrion, beyond the reach of the patient Greeks.

The Conservatives do not believe that Russia will join in the present measures.

ATHENS, Greece, May 9.—The Government has sent a protest to Constantinople to take away from the Turkish Consul M. Contoveli, charged to the court with all possible speed. All the Foreign Ministers have conferred on the result of their respective notices to depart from Greece. The Russian have given notice to their fleets to blockade the Greek ports. The orders of the previous have received with cheers the orders to march to the frontier.

Crowds fill the Turkish Ministry, where the departure hence takes place, and the Ministers of the staff of the Turkish Legation are packed all his and their personal effects to be removed. The movements of the other foreign legations with respect to an ultimate capacity for a time at least. The Russian Minister left here this afternoon, and having been instructed to do so, the Turkish Minister will be left in charge of the Russian interests. The Austrian Minister will also leave the other Ministers will remain here.

The Turkish troops are rapidly advancing on the frontier. The British, Italian, German, and Austrian Ministers have gone, but their legations are still represented, as also the Russian

IN GENERAL.

The temperature yesterday, as observed by Sherman, Tarrant Building, was as follows: 6 a. m., 47°; 9 a. m., 47°; 12 m., 47°; 3 p. m., 47°; 6 p. m., 47°; 9 p. m., 47°; 12 p. m., 47°; 3 a. m., 47°; 6 a. m., 47°. Average, 47°; 6 a. m., 54.5°.

Work has been resumed on the Lake-street viaduct. The delay was caused by lack of material, which was in use beyond the city limits. The cars were put on in December and the contractors expected to getting enough iron yesterday to keep their men going for a week or ten days. By that time it is believed the remainder will be on the ground.

Committees representing Frederick A. Delcr's and Schneider & Son's artisans waited upon the Chicago Cornice manufacturers at their meeting at No. 40 La Salle-street yesterday and petitioned them to request their firms to have all the work on goods sent to Chicago done here. The meeting appointed a committee of three to wait upon the firms and make the desired request.

The Election Commissioners met Monday at 2 p. m. for the purpose of settling their accounts previous to Mr. Kollmer's resignation. Mr. Doherty said first that he would not be present, as he was having an operation performed to relieve an ear trouble. Messrs. Kollmer and Sachtleben did settle the accounts. Judge Prendergast did not consider that he had not received Mr. Kollmer's resignation in writing, and therefore it would be premature to enter upon the question of successor.

The Cleaning Club met in annual meeting at the Leonard House last night. C. H. S. Hoyt presiding and J. D. Van Vleckgun acting as Secretary. After the usual address and reports the following were elected a Board of Managers for the ensuing year: S. H. Gregory, H. H. Hall, S. T. Thompson, J. A. Goode, T. J. Dwyer, Mr. Van Vleckgun was reflected Secretary, the Chairman of the Board of Managers being ex-officio President of the club. The club is in a prosperous condition, and the meeting was a pleasant one.

The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Germania Society was held yesterday at No. 19 La Salle street. The agent's report showed that 150 employees had applied to the society for aid and health help, and 110 laborers, including one woman, found employment through its efforts. The society has given aid to seven families with eight children, to thirteen single persons, and has furnished food and lodgings to nine persons. There was disbursed for aid $61.15, and the amount paid by members amounted to $1,130.75. Frank A. Hoyt and Adolph Schoen have acted with the society during the month.

The Pension Agency yesterday received official notification that the "Second bill" provides that the pensions of all widows of officers and men in the army and navy or of men who served in the War of 1812, their widows and dependent relatives whose means are not sufficient for the support of a boy not over 16 years of age, shall be allowed after the death of the pensioner, Judge Prendergast will consider that he has not received Mr. Kollmer's resignation in writing, and therefore it would be premature to proceed to enter upon the question of successor.

The Young People's Union of the Society for Ethical Culture held their annual meeting in the vestibule of the Harmon House last night, a large number of members being present. The President's address covered the work of the last year in a comprehensive manner and offered suggestions for the coming year. Other reports were submitted, that of the Treasurer showing a gratifying balance. The following were elected officers for the ensuing year: President, Roger Sherman Hoar; Vice-President, Miss Martha C. Clark; Secretary, J. H. Gould; Treasurer, C. D. Brown. The following were elected members of the Board of Managers, who together with the officers named constitute the Executive Committee: Miss Kitty Gregory, Miss Myrtle Scott, C. C. Sutcliffe.

The preparations for the Butterfly Ball to be given for the benefit of the Chicago Homeopathic Hospital are discovered at the Chicago Opera-House in June are well under way. Sixty-two hundred children from 3 to 15 years of age are being coached every week by Mr. Barton in the various dances inclulcated in the quadrille. The music connected with the various charity are actively engaged in getting the children in beautiful advisory work dressed in the part, and in the way of decorating the immediate stage of the butterfly. Mr. Barton, and placing roosting pillows in the auditorium for the children's convenience. All who saw the production, which was played upon the stage of Haverly's Theatre in 1874, will remember with pleasure the performance then given by their more youth and the delightful revelry which followed their efforts of that time.

A Liberal Mr. Harris.

When Arthur Harris, a stylishly-dressed young man residing on Park court, confronted Justice Bonfe yesterday morning under the charge of carrying concealed weapons and disturbing inmates of the city lacks he asked very hard to convince the court impression that he had only shot at a number of rats which under had undertaken his residence for a week past. "Don't you know, sir," asked the Justice, "that you are liable to be arrested before the record runs 10 days unless you have a license?" "Yes, Judge, I would have to, but I was in a hurry." "Well, you'll have to get it now, I guess, or I'll have to fine you." "I'll have you! Well, I've got to have it, then, much have you with you?" "Only $5." "Half or more is there," roared the Judge. "I'll let you off this time, but don't you do the thing again, you hear me?"

An Installment of Water at the County Insane Asylum and Poor-House—A Little Grumbling Will Then Be Going Without It.

There has been great lack of water at the County Insane Asylum and the Poor-House since Sunday last, when one of the mains in the system fractured. On Sunday last one well in nearly the needs of about 2,000 people in the asylum and poor-house, besides the water required for the use of the stock. The water used for running the engines of the asylum and poor-house is obtained by tapping the ground between the Desplaines River and the nearest farm and hauling it by way of operation of reservoir. The difficulty was first discovered when the engineer, early last Sunday, found the water supply cut off. Search for the cause was at once made, and it was found that the main had broken. The water was then turned into the reservoir, and the pumping was resumed. The water was then turned into the reservoir, and the pumping was resumed. LITERATURE OF THE DAY.

Mr. ANDREW LANG'S QUEER NOVEL, "THE MARK OF CAIN."

Confessions of a Western Farmer—A Rollicking Tragedy—The Land of the Saints—Last Days of the Commune—The Poet-Queen—King Solomon's Mines—Stories by Miss Terry Cooke—The Late Mrs. Putnam—Book-Talk Double—The History of Prodigy—Digressory.

Mr. Andrew Lang's versatility as a writer is still increasing. He began both as one thing a translation of Homer and an author also of Ballades of Books and an occasional one of Theocritus. He drew gracefully as a humorist's pastime into a controversy on the authorship of the Letters to Junius. Also he was the first person known to have made Scottish folk-lore of serious value available for the general reader. He has written charming poems under the name of Grass of Parnassus London, to bring pressure upon the Home Rule, and he outlines charming letters to Great Britain, to which the leading groups of the clamoring factions of the world, and into these the Mr. Lang manages to put his doctrines of a literary character, commends to the attention of the reader the current genius of "Rudyard Kipling," turns the gimlet of literary criticism, however, to reassert for him a rather a nerve.

The novel is now at hand. The present editor has to do about every other form, for there has a and giving American guidelines to go to see the matter. It is called "The Mark of Cain," and, although now in book to not so, a group of the form leaves no doubt upon the point that it bears some of the marks of Single Curry.

It is hard to believe that Mr. Lang intended people to take this story seriously, to assume that he meant to present to the boy of imagination, and an importunity to speculate upon the authenticity experiences that he was in the determination of the plot. He is a Scotchman, and to some serious degeneration of nerves he has a sense of humor. The temptation to write a novel of this kind must have been irresistible. The average reader is to amusement to a Scotchman's humor. The average reader is to amusement to a Scotchman's humor. The average reader is to amusement to a Scotchman's humor

A Manufactured Minister.

About four years ago I became the husband of a very charming girl in one of our Eastern suburban cities. In our marriage with Hymen [illegible] all the contentedness been fulfilled. She was a fine grand my [illegible] disposition and life, I sincerely believe, for [illegible] She was [illegible] gentlemen, [illegible] possessed the power extensive, and being a perfect [illegible] and I a mark known. I loved her sincerely. I was in prosperous circumstances, and on our wedding-day I gave no reason why our married life should not be [illegible] to personal condition.

Such would probably have been the case but it was here for an unfortunate defect in my [illegible]. I may as well state here that, before our marriage, I had carried myself pretty largely to that particular point known as strong wine. I cannot say that I was intemperate, but I formed the conquest of good fellows. Like [illegible] had a peculiar fascination for me and the pop of a champagne cork fired me as the report of a musket is said to thrill a war-horse. Those things which have never counted more than [illegible] to a single man. I suddenly found myself [illegible] and when frequently by a [illegible] fellows rose and often [illegible] my self-control was lost. Like [illegible] Scotty in allowing myself to [illegible] the [illegible] of office, and there the trouble began.

My trust is a pretty little [illegible] not nearly to the suburbs, but the [illegible] from the lower corner of a [illegible] for [illegible] [illegible] and a [illegible] [illegible] of Bates [illegible] and a [illegible] or [illegible] there [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
